Judging by His Letter, Tommy Burns is Still the Manager of Arthur Pelky.

Copyright, 1918, by The Frem Publishing Co. (The New York World). "COMMY BURNS wants to match

Pelky against Gunboat Smith. He is asking what terms Billy Gibson will offer for such an event. "Pelky is out shooting in Alberta at present, not far from here." Burns writes from Calgary. So it's evident that Tommy didn't lose Pellky after all, in spite of the wild steries of a "Polky staement" and s spilt between manager and man. Burne is ettil taking a tropical view of the attempt to "grab" Pelky. He blames Tom McCarey and Tim McGrath, and writes a few interesting notes on "Honest Tom."

"If I had rehearsed before my Pelky bout, with Poliky in my garret, Mrs. Burns, my sister, my nephew, my brother and myself would have to know something about it. The story was the most miserable fake ever pulled off in the history of boming, and I never recoived a cent out of the boxing game in a dishonest way. To be successful newsdays a person has to have some enemies, and I guess McCarey and McGrath would do a good deal for a little money. Money isn't everything in this world, although it seems to be with come people." Burns incloses a carbon copy of a letter sent to McCarey. Tommy suggests quite a little inside "dope."

"When I refereed the fight for you at Maud Junction some years ago between Abdul the Turk and Frank Fields." he writes McCarey, "you were much eur-prised when I told you that I did not money bet on the result. Finally I did over toward second base, being good for a hit, and the bases were full. next day you told me what a sucker I was not to have called it a draw and Cooper scoring after the catch. AL M'COY WINS AWARD IN BOSTON OVER BRUSSO.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.-The opening bout at the Atlas A. A. was between Al. Mc-Coy of New York, who boxed after the style of "K. O." Brown, and Noah Brusso of Pawtucket. It was not an exciting affair and at the end of the ten rounds McCoy was given the award, which he earned by a big margin. The bout between Al. Delmont of Boston and Paddy Callahan of New York was a big disappointment and the fans were when it ended. Callahan made little effort to do any boxing and Delmont got the decision.
